

PASTOR'S CORNER

God's Call to Gideon

There's a lot of talk about racism these days. It seems to be a go-to accusation, that is thrown around very loosely.

Please humor me, as I share two quick thoughts.

First, an observation: There are approximately 400,000 graves in Arlington National Cemetery. That includes, servicemen, servicewomen, and members of their families.

There is one glaring flaw in these cemeteries. The color of the skin of the dead is not mentioned on a single one of the grave markers. Not one.

Maybe, just maybe – ashes have no color. Maybe, just maybe, dust has no color.

Secondly: What is the Bible's stance on Race? It appears that Heaven doesn't take note of skin color, either. All nations get in. Observe, please:

Revelation 7:9 NIV: "After this I looked, and there before me was a great multitude that no one could count, from every nation, tribe, people and language, standing before the throne and before the Lamb. They were wearing white robes and were holding palm branches in their hands."

Check it for yourself – there is not one word about skin color, describing or qualifying who may stand before the Throne of God!

So, who does get into heaven? 1 John 5:13 NASB puts it this way. "These things I have written to you who believe in the Name of the Son of God, so that you may know that you have eternal life.

I thank God for His color-blindness. May we be equally so.

Sweet Devotions

Childlike Faith

Mark 10:15 Jesus said, "I tell you the truth, anyone who will not receive the kingdom of God like a little child will never enter it."

So, what is childlike faith? As I ponder this question, I think of the trust a little child has in his parents. Consider a little child learning to swim. The parent says jump into the water and I'll catch you. In complete trust the child jumps into his parents' arms. Jesus wants us to have that same innocent faith and trust.

I believe Jesus is imploring us to come before the Father with complete trust and a willingness to leap into His loving arms. Our Father wants us to come before Him with faith as a child. Trusting Him, staying in His word and seeking Him as we grow in our Christian faith.

Dear Heavenly Father, give me a heart to completely trust You and to love You. To ask You about things I don't understand and to wait expectantly for Your wisdom and understanding. And then one glorious day I will leap into Your Glory and You will catch me! Amen!
